

Two of the biggest names in the Volleyball community, PowerZone Volleyball and Warren Sixpack Juniors — have agreed to join forces to expand boys volleyball in Northern New Jersey. The partnership of the two organizations will create more opportunities for boys in North Jersey to play volleyball and compete at the highest levels. Warren Sixpack is New Jersey's premier National Volleyball Club for boys with the best players in NJ. PowerZone, established 22 years ago and simply the best facility anywhere. PowerZone is home to Allegro Girls volleyball Club.

What does this mean? PowerZone Sixpack and Warren Sixpack will have joint tryouts in September at PowerZone and CBA. Local teams from both programs will play together and improve the level of play of the local tournaments. PowerZone and Warren teams will have their own assigned coaches but have the opportunity to work together. PowerZone Players may also be picked up for end of season tournaments with Warren teams.

Teams: Top level players will be selected for Warren Sixpack teams. PowerZone Sixpack will plan to have 3 or 4 travel teams out of Denville. The ages of each team will depend on tryouts and ages of players. 18U Travel Team (1), 16U Travel Team (1 or 2), 14U Travel Team (1 or 2). Players who are not selected for a travel team will be offered a spot in locals.
